

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in joining your esteemed IT company. Allow me to introduce myself and share my aspirations and dedication to the field.

My name is Filip Karika, and I am 21 years old. From a young age, I have been captivated by the world of computer science and programming. This passion has driven me to envision creating projects that positively impact the world. Motivated by this vision, I have committed myself to continuous growth and excellence in the IT domain.

Currently, I am pursuing dual studies to deepen my expertise:

- Unicorn University in Prague: Second-year student specializing in Software Development.
- 42 Prague: Engaged in an innovative, peer-to-peer learning program focused on practical IT skills.

In addition to my academic pursuits, I am actively developing a comprehensive manual on web development. This project aims to serve as a valuable resource for aspiring developers, reflecting my commitment to knowledge sharing and community contribution.

Balancing rigorous academic programs with self-initiated projects demonstrates my dedication, resilience, and strong work ethic. I am eager to apply my skills and enthusiasm to a professional environment where I can contribute meaningfully and continue to grow.

I believe that my motivation, abilities, and commitment to the IT field would make me a valuable asset to your team. I am excited about the opportunity to work with your company and take the next step in my career.

Sincerely,

Filip Karika
